A Famous Health Resort.

FOR REST AND RECREATION.
FOR HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

THE WALTER SANITARIUM,
WALTER'S PARK, (Wernersville, Pa.)

As to Natural Advantages: On the mountain-side overlooking one of the most beautiful valleys in the world, which as viewed from the Sanitarium, constitutes a panoramic scene of magnificent proportions and surpassing loveliness.

"No Malaria, Mosquitoes, or Dew" is the proud boast of this place. In the matter of air, water, and scenery we really have no competitor.

As to Acquired Facilities, let us note simply: A main building 300 feet long, five stories in height, of mountain granite, erected by its present managers—several cottages in connection. It is heated by steam and open grates, lighted by electricity, and is correspondingly finished and furnished. It has Hydraulic Elevator, Electric Bells, Sun Parlor, excellent Livery and Dairy. Its appliances for treatment are: Baths of varied kinds, Massage, Electricity, Swedish Movements, Oxygen, Vacuum Treatment, with physicians of twenty to thirty years' experience, who carefully prescribe according to the needs of patients.

If you want a restful profitable vacation come to us feeling assured you will have it. If you are sick and have tried the unusual remedies and resorts, write to us stating your case, and we will tell you what we can do for you. For terms or any particulars desired, address,

ROBERT WALTER, M.D., Walter's Park, Pa.

The Living Age, Boston: "It is a far-seeing view of the country's future, and abounds in arguments that will reassure many people whom the present crisis is perplexing unduly."

THE IMPERIAL REPUBLIC

A thoroughly original, stirring, and powerful argument for expansion from the point of view of a scholar and a student of history. By James C. Fernald, author of "The Spaniard in History," etc. 12mo, cloth. Cover design. With five maps. Price, 75 cents.

New York Times: "It is a storehouse of facts and suggestions, and a display of light and reason on this subject which ought to make it as important to those who oppose as to those who agree with it."

FUNK & WAGNALLS CO., Publishers,
80 Lafayette Place, New York.

THE AMERICAN COLONIAL HANDBOOK

A ready reference handbook of interesting and useful facts and figures, historical, geographical, commercial and political, about our new possessions. By THOMAS CAMPBELL-COPELAND. 16mo, Cloth, 50 cents.

Muscle Trade Review, New York: "To the busy man desiring the fullest information of our new possessions there is no book to-day better than the public giving such complete and authoritative information as the 'American Colonial Handbook.'"

FUNK & WAGNALLS CO., 30 Lafayette Pl., New York.

THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

Is in charge of thoroughly educated physicians of long experience. Our chief physician has enjoyed a training and experience with Sanitarium methods extending over a period of more than thirty years, such as is seldom found, while his assistants are equally eminent in their specialties.

THE TABLE

Is exceptionally excellent; the Cuisine presided over by a first-class chef, and the service is unusually good. Country milk and cream are in abundance from our own fine Jersey dairy; flesh (not Chicago meat), fish, and fowl of the very best quality supplied in abundance, along with a plentiful supply of fresh fruits and vegetables from our own gardens.

OUR WATER SUPPLY

Walter's Sanitarium is supplied with as pure, sweet, and refreshing water as ever was drunk. We are tempted to say that it is the purest in the world. Chemical analysis proves that it is superior in this respect to any of the noted waters that are found upon the market.

The Essentials of Elocution

Novel ways by which to perfect every gesture and articulation to that high degree of art where the art itself is concealed and the hearer is made oblivious to everything but the sentiments uttered by the speaker. By ALFRED AYRES, author of "The Orthoepist," "The Verbalist," "Acting and Actors," etc. With frontispiece.

The Dramatic News: "Mr. Ayres has made this subject a study for many years, and what he has written is worth reading." Tastefully bound, deckle edges. 16mo, 75 cents.

THE LITERARY DIGEST.

EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITIES AT HOME AND ABROAD UNHESITATINGLY DECLARE IT TO BE UNAPPROACHED AND UNEXCELLED IN EVERY FEATURE

The School Board Chronicle, London: "Not only is there vast increase in the number of words, but the definitions are uncommonly full, exact and clear, always telling something characteristic and instructive. The illustrations are new and remarkably fine."

Journal of Education, Boston: "This is a treasure. No one can conceive the wealth of information, the convenience for reference, the elimination of non-essentials which make this book worth much more than the price to any student, teacher or writer."

NO OTHER ABRIDGED DICTIONARY IS SO SATISFYING FOR HANDY DESK USE IN OFFICE OR STUDY

The Students' Standard Dictionary

Abridged from the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary

Thoroughly new from cover to cover with exclusive features of extraordinary importance. It is the work throughout of many eminent specialists. Every particular of the arrangement has been especially designed to fully meet the most exacting requirements of the modern dictionary. In its amplexness, accuracy, authority, and in every other of its valuable features, it completely supersedes all the older academic dictionaries. The value and convenience of its vocabulary and appendix have never been approximated by other works. The type, paper, and binding are of superior quality.

A FEW EXCLUSIVE AND SUPERIOR MERITS

"As far in advance of all other academic or high-school dictionaries as the Standard is of all one-volume or two-volume lexicons. It is preeminently the dictionary for the student or for all persons who can not afford the larger one, while those who own the latter will want it for handy use. Both dictionaries are indispensable."—W. J. Rolfe, Shakespearian Critic, Harvard University.

Exclusive Merits of this Work

EXCLUSIVELY capitalizes only such words as require capitals. A sure guide to capitalization.

EXCLUSIVELY supplies Prepositions (over 1,000) and illustrates their correct use.

EXCLUSIVELY furnishes antonyms (over 2,000) or opposite words; as indispensable as synonyms.

EXCLUSIVELY indicates the difference between compound words and broken words at end of lines.

EXCLUSIVELY embodies the English classics feature described below.

EXCLUSIVELY contains thousands of new words and appendix features of value.

A Few of its Superior Merits

SUPERIOR Vocabulary (62,284 terms) of unexcelled scope, richness, and convenient arrangement.

SUPERIOR Definitions; prepared by eminent specialists, and always full, exact, and clear.

SUPERIOR Pronunciation System indicating pronunciations with ease and simplicity.

SUPERIOR Etymologies traced back in direct line, no guesses or incursions into cognate languages.

SUPERIOR Illustrations (over 1,225) being plentiful, tasteful, and of high definitive value.

SUPERIOR availability: thousands of new words demanded by the arts, sciences, etc.

FEATURES MAKING IT THE MOST PERFECT OF ACADEMIC DICTIONARIES

A Rich Vocabulary

The scope and richness of the vocabulary are among its most important features. Thousands of new words demanded by the progress of science, arts, and philosophy, and by a more extended literary survey, are included.

Spellings, Pronunciations

All spellings and pronunciations were under supervision of the Standard Dictionary committee of leading philologists and educators. Exactness and simplicity make the system helpful.

Marvelously Complete Appendix

Containing 100 pages includes: Principles and Explanations of the Scientific Alphabet; Proper names in Fiction, Geography, History, Mythology; Foreign Words, Phrases, etc.; Faulty Diction, Disputed Pronunciations; Abbreviations and Contractions; University Degrees; Chemical Elements; Pilgrim Fathers and Signers of the Declaration of Independence; Presidents of the United States and Sovereigns of England; Systems of Shorthand and Calendars of the World; Weights and Measures, Common and Metric Systems; Arbitrary Signs, Symbols, etc.

Full, Accurate Definitions

The definitions are full, exact, and clear. Prepared by specialists, they have a technical accuracy not to be found in similar works. The aim has been to make the definitions comprehensive.

System of Capitalization

Other dictionaries capitalize every vocabulary word. This work capitalizes only the words that are to be so written. Changes of capitalization in different definitions of the same word are indicated.

Etymological Value

The meaning of each word has been traced back in a direct line, avoiding guesses or incursions into cognate languages. Being invariably placed after the definitions the etymologies do not impede consultation.

English Classics Feature

Meanings of all words used in the sixty volumes of English classics selected by the commission of colleges for study preparatory to entering the leading colleges have been incorporated.

ITS FULNESS, ACCURACY, AND SUPERIOR ARRANGEMENT SHOWN BY COMPARISON

READ THESE EMPHATIC AND UNQUALIFIED INDORSEMENTS FROM EDUCATORS

AMERICAN EDUCATORS CONSIDER IT SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS

Pres. H. D. Cochran, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute: "The most reliable, comprehensive, and convenient."

Richard M. Jones, LL.D., Head Master Wm. Penn Charter School, Philadelphia: "No other academic dictionary approaches it."

Arthur B. Huey, President Board Public Education, Philadelphia: "I don't know of any academic dictionary that equals it."

A. W. Edson, Associate Superintendent Department Education, New York City: "A very complete and satisfactory dictionary."

William F. Phelps, Director State Normal Schools, St. Paul, Minn.: "For precision and comprehensiveness of definition, and accuracy and nice discrimination in orthoepy and orthography, and for exhaustiveness in the etymological treatment of derivative words—in fact, in all the essential elements of a perfect lexicography, there is nothing extant to compare with it."

Pres. J. M. Taylor, Vassar College: "It is well arranged, compact, and its appendices are valuable."

Pres. Wm. F. Warren, Boston University: "The book can not fail to be a favorite."

C. R. Gaston, Department of English, and Editor-in-Chief of Cornell Magazine, Cornell University: "The Students' Standard Dictionary is in front of me on my desk, handy for emergency use in my hours of reading compositions. I have already found it much better than my little Webster."

John Eaton, Ex-United States Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C.: "I regard your Students' Standard Dictionary as the best of our abridgements."

Gilbert C. Goodlet, Principal Franklin School, St. Louis, Mo.: "I consider the Students' Standard Dictionary to be the best dictionary published. Its clarity and accuracy, its definiteness, reveal it to be unsurpassed."

IN HIGH FAVOR WITH ENGLISH AUTHORITIES

Prof. George V. Hart, Regius Professor of Feudal and English Law, Trinity College, Dublin: "In the highest degree compendious, accurate, and complete."

Rev. David Rowlands, Principal Memorial College, Brecon, Wales: "Scholarly, comprehensive, and convenient."

The Educational Times, London: "A vast mass of information which must frequently be useful for reference in a school library."

The Board Teacher, London: "Thorough, accurate, and meritorious to a high degree."

Montague H. Crackenthorpe, Q.C., Counsel University of Oxford: "I should be surprised if these dictionaries (Students' Standard and Standard Intermediate School) could be surpassed anywhere in point of preciseness of language, clearness of presentation, and aptness of delineative illustration."

Very Rev. William Delany, President University College, Dublin: "Seems to be deserving of every commendation."

Miss Kate Hurlbutt, Principal Aberdare Hall, Cardiff, Wales: "Comprehensive and accurate."

H. B. Gray, Warden Bradfield College, Berkshire: "The definitions strike me as being vastly superior to any that I have seen before in school dictionaries, being at once more logical and more exhaustive."

Edward H. Perowne, D.D., Master Corpus Christi College, Cambridge: "So much information has rarely been furnished in so small a compass, or rendered available by so judicious an arrangement."

The Public School Magazine, London: "No master or boy could desire a better or more attractive book of reference than this. We lay stress upon the profusion of illustrations, a necessity in a dictionary for school use."

Large 8vo, 915 pp., printed on first-class paper. Full Sheep, $4.00. Patent Thumb Index, 50c. extra. Send for Prospectus.
